Maine Food Strategy Presents at the 2015 Maine Agricultural Trades Show

Portland, Maine (January 7, 2015) – The Maine Food Strategy (MFS) will present at the 2015 Maine Agricultural Trades Show January 13 – 15, 2015, held at the Augusta Civic Center. The purpose of these presentations is to connect with as many members of Maine’s agriculture community to seek their input and ideas.

Open House: Meet, Greet & Eat

Tuesday, January 13, 1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Hancock Room

During this open house, attendees are encouraged to drop by to meet MFS Co-Director Tanya Swain and Steering Committee members. Starting around 3:00 p.m., samples of local food will be served, generously donated by Wholesome Holmstead of Winthrop.

Just Farmers Wanted!

Wednesday, January 14, 10:00 a.m.

Thursday, January 15, 9:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. (two sessions)

Somerset Room

MFS is seeking input on what Maine agriculture needs most. These dynamic, interactive sessions include a voting system that displays audience preferences instantly.

ABOUT THE MAINE FOOD STRATEGY

The Maine Food Strategy is an initiative to create a broader and more strongly connected network of organizations and individuals contributing to the food system in Maine. The initiative is convening a statewide participatory process that will identify and advance shared goals to support a robust food economy and to look at other food-related issues in the state.
