Maine Food Strategy to Speak at the Common Ground Country Fair

Portland, Maine (September 18, 2014) – The Maine Food Strategy is pleased to participate in the Common Ground Country Fair, a popular Maine fall tradition held annually in Unity. Look for the MFS booth in the Agriculture Demonstration Tent from Friday, September 19 through September 21, 2014.

MFS Co-Director Barbi Ives will be on hand to share information about the initiative and #MaineFoodWorks, a series of presentations to solicit ideas from Maine people and businesses on what actions and changes will strengthen the state's farming, food and fishing economy.

On Saturday, September 20, from noon to 1:00 p.m. in the Railcar Tent, MFS Co-Director Tanya Swain will talk about the initiative and ask attendees to participate in the planning process by sharing best ideas for specific changes.

ABOUT THE MAINE FOOD STRATEGY

The Maine Food Strategy is an initiative to create a broader and more strongly connected network of organizations and individuals contributing to the food system in Maine. The initiative is convening a statewide participatory process that will identify and advance shared goals to support a robust food economy and to look at other food-related issues in the state.
